

Mr. Fisher's Winter Camping checklist

Here is a list of the must have items:

1. Sleeping pad.
2. Mummy bag rated for the cold temperature.
3. extra blanket or fleece bag to put inside your sleeping bag for added warmth.
4. hat to keep your head warm while you are sleeping and to wear during the day. A knit type hat such as a toboggan works well.
5. long underwear to wear during the day.
6. long underwear or sweats to sleep in.
7. gloves.
8. warm winter coat.
9. warm pants and/or snow pants.
10. scarf or ski mask
11. warm boots and an extra pair of shoes in case your boots get wet.
12. warm socks.
13. warm socks.
14. warm socks.
15. and did I mention that you need some extra warm socks just in case your socks get wet. As we discussed Monday night, wool socks are the best.
16. mess kit.
17. personal toiletries (what I call my shave kit)
18. any medications needed.
19. camp chair.
20. compass for the orienteering merit badge work that we are doing.
21. headlight or flashlight. It will be dark when we get to the camp.

One optional item that you may want to bring is a sled. If there is snow on the ground we will be doing sledding and having fun in the snow.
